There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of: Engaging in Illicit Sexual Conduct with a Minor in Foreign Places in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2423(c) as charged in Count 4; Traveling With the Intent to Engage in Illicit Sexual Conduct in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2423(b) as charged in Count 10 of the First Superseding Indictment.

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM
ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

Three Hundred (300) Months as to each of Counts 4 and 10, to run concurrently, one with the other.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately but may be paid during the term of supervised release.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for life. This term consists of life on each of Counts 4 and 10, to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

(1) The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office, General Order 318 as well as the rules and participation agreement of the computer monitoring program; (2) During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment; (3) The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant; (4) The defendant shall use only those computers and computer-related devices, screen user names, passwords, email accounts, and internet service providers (ISPs), which have been disclosed to the probation officer upon commencement of supervision. Any changes or additions are to be disclosed to the probation officer prior to the first use. Computers and computer-related devices include, but are not limited to, personal computers, personal data assistants (PDAs), internet appliances, electronic games, and cellular telephones, digital storage media, as well as their peripheral equipment, that can access, or can be modified to access, the internet, electronic bulletin boards, and other computers, or similar media; (5) All computers, computer-related devices and their peripheral equipment used by the defendant, shall be subject to search and seizure. This shall not apply to items used at the employment sites which are maintained and monitored by the employer. (6) the defendant shall submit to a search at any time by any law enforcement officer or probation officer of the defendant's person, property, residence, vehicle, papers, computer and other electronic communications or data storage devices and media that effects upon reasonable suspicion, concerning a violation of the conditions of supervision or unlawful conduct by the defendant or by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions. (7) The defendant shall not possess or use a computer with access to any on line services of any type without the prior approval of the probation officer. This includes access through any international server provider, bulletin board by any public or private computer network system; (8) the defendant shall not have another individual access the internet on his behalf to obtain files or information which he has been restricted from accessing, or accept restricted files or information from another person; (9) The defendant shall register with the state sex offender registration agency in any state where the defendant resides, is employed, carries on a vocation, or is a student, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall provide proof of registration to the Probation Officer within 30 days of release from imprisonment; (10) The defendant shall participate in a psychological/psychiatric counseling and/or a sex offender treatment program, which may include inpatient treatment, if such program is approved by probation with or without consent by the defendant and defense counsel. The defendant shall take all prescribed medication as directed by probation; (11) The defendant shall not possess any materials, including pictures, photographs, books, writings, drawings, videos, or video games, depicting and/or describing "sexually explicit conduct," as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2) and it does not include materials that may be used for treatment to the extent that the defendant is involved in a treatment program; (12) The defendant shall not possess any materials, including pictures, photographs, books, writings, drawings, videos, or video games, depicting and/or describing child pornography, but it does not include the defendant having in his possession his Presentence Report, including copies of statutes in cases the defendant may need, if the defendant were to bring a collateral challenge to the sentence; (13) The defendant shall not own, use or have access to the services of any commercial mail-receiving agency, nor shall he open or maintain a post office box, without the prior written approval of the Probation Officer; (14) The defendant shall not frequent or loiter within 100 feet of school yards, parks, public swimming pools, playgrounds, youth centers, video arcade facilities, or other places primarily used by persons under the age of 18; (15) The defendant shall not associate or have verbal, written, telephonic, or electronic communication with any person under the age of 18, except: a) in the presence of the parent or legal guardian of said minor; and b) on the condition that the defendant notify said parent or legal guardian of his conviction in the instant case. This provision does not encompass persons under the age of 18, such as waiters, cashiers, ticket vendors, etc., with whom the defendant must interact in order to obtain ordinary and usual commercial services; (16) The defendant shall not affiliate with, own, control, volunteer and/or be employed in any capacity by a business and or organization that causes him to regularly contact persons under the age of 18; (17) The defendant shall not affiliate with, own, control, and/or be employed in any capacity by a business whose principal product is the production and/or selling of materials depicting and/or describing "sexually explicit conduct," as defined at 18 U.S.C. § 2256(2); (18) The defendant's employment shall be approved by the Probation Officer, and any change in employment must be pre-approved by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall submit the name and address of the proposed employer to the Probation Officer at least 10 days prior to any scheduled change; and (19) The defendant shall not reside within direct view of school yards, parks, public swimming pools, playgrounds, youth centers, video arcade facilities, or other places primarily used by persons under the age of 18. The defendant's residence shall be approved by the Probation Officer, and any change in residence must be pre-approved by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall submit the address of the proposed residence to the Probation Officer at least 10 days prior to any scheduled move.

All fines are waived, the Court finds that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine.

The Court RECOMMENDS that the defendant be designated to FCI Seagoville, Texas and that pending designation that the defendant be housed at MDC, Los Angeles.

It is ordered that the defendant shall receive credit for time served.

The Court further RECOMMENDS that the defendant be permitted to participate in treatment programs if the defendant is qualified to do so.

The defendant was advised of his right to appeal and if the defendant so wishes, defense counsel shall file a Notice of Appeal on behalf of the defendant.

It is ordered that the defendant shall keep the 9th Circuit advised of his current address.

USA vs. STEVEN ERIC PROWLERDocket No.: CR06-00391(A) CBM

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
